BECOMING A CAANS MEMBER:

CAANS is not a training club, we don't hold classes, but we do hold trials for those who want to trial. CAANS currently holds four AAC trials a year. While members are required to pitch in and help with trials and the running of the club, there are plenty of perks. Currently, a reduction in trial entries, first opportunity to enter limited entry trials, a two-hour member-only practice session at the UDSC barn in Mt. Uniacke every week, and special award presentations for the big titles at the end of each year at our holiday party. A very fun party. While there is a onetime initiation fee to join, if you enter all our trials for a year and a half, you will have saved back the initiation fee. After that it's just the nominal yearly membership fees. If you are interested, talk to us or contact leslie.lord@ns.sympatico.ca for membership forms or more info.

Regular measuring will be done in the morning prior to the beginning of judging. A second measuring will be offered after the second event each day.

Volunteer List:

The volunteer list will be posted to the CAANS website in advance of the trial and at the gate the day of the trial. Please check the volunteer list carefully and report any conflicts prior to, and on the day of, the trial to the Volunteer Coordinator, it is always better if you can resolve it yourself and let the coordinator know.
